"Just for today, I will live one day only and not try to solve the whole problem of life at once."

"Just for today, I will look at life with fresh eyes and discover the wonder of it. I will know that as I give to the world, so the world will give to me."

"Just for today, I will not try to improve or regulate anybody except myself."

"Just for today, I will find a little time to relax and to realize what life is and can be, time to think about God, and get a better perspective on myself."

Dr. Charles W. Edwards, Jr.

God bless and keep you and your family is my prayer,
Aunt Delorius and Jayson

HAPPY 10TH PASTORAL ANNIVERSARY!!

Pastor Johnson, Paul told the Thessalonians, "Now we ask you, brothers, to respect those who work hard among you, and are over you in the Lord and who admonish you. Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other" (1 Thessalonians 5:12-13). To paraphrase:

We ask you to honor those leaders who work so hard for you, who have been given the responsibility of urging and guiding you along in your obedience. Overwhelm them with appreciation and love! Get along among yourselves, each of you doing your part.

We remember as though it were yesterday, the day you made public your call to the Ministry. "We knew it!" was our response. You are truly a man after God's own heart! And we love you!!

May God continue to bless you for what you have meant to our lives!

Thank you Pastor's wife! There are many expectations of you. At times, you are expected to be omnipresent; other times invisible. You are expected to adjust your life to the life of the pastor, who just happens to be your husband. You listen to criticisms of your husband, and you are expected to be stoic. You are the only person in whom your husband can truly confide. When he is down, you are expected to encourage and exhort him. You may have one of the loneliest roles in the world and may wonder if it's all even worth it.

BUT, Pastor and First Lady, we know someone who cares about you and He is with you. He is your strength. He is your comforter. He is your confidant.

One day you BOTH will get your rewards for your labor, sacrifice, and love. One day He will look at you BOTH with unstoppable love and piercing eyes. One day He will say, "Well done good and faithful servant. Well done." And then you will know it was all worthwhile.

Deacon Ed, Wanda, and Caleb Crawley Sr.

Psalm 24

The earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness, the world and those who dwell therein.

For He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters.

Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who may stand in His holy place?

He who has clean hands and a pure heart, Who has not lifted up his soul to an idol, Nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive blessing from the Lord, And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is Jacob, the generation of those who seek Him, Who seek Your face.

Selah

Lift up your heads O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty.

The Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O you gates! Lift up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts,

He is the King of glory.
