Elder Grace Holley

Elder Grace Crump Holley was born August 9, 1958 in Somers Point, New Jersey. She was born of the union of the late Nathaniel Crump and Margaret Crump Coleman.

Elder Holley is a graduate of Atlantic City High School. She has studied at Atlantic Cape Community College and is a Child Development Associate. She graduated from COH Bible College and attended a satellite location for Berean Global University, was a virtual student with MKWW Religious Training Institute and is presently attending Global Ministries Bible Institute. She has been recognized for her work in ministry and was awarded three honorary degrees.

Apostle Dr. Delorise Dixon of COFAD also awarded her as a Daughter of Destiny 2017 and she is a member of the Woman of the Cloth where women receive ministerial training as well as other training such as Women of Deliverance, Prayer school, Leadership and others in the field of early childhood.

Elder Grace received salvation back in 2003 and was water baptized in 2004, then received the evidence of the Holy Ghost shortly after. God did quick work for her. She has seen miracles, signs and wonders manifest in her life, and has been healed, set free and delivered. God has demonstrated who he is. Elder Holley is fully persuaded, not by power, not by might but by His Spirit.

In hindsight, she recognizes the hand of the Lord, as she was being prepared at a young age to take on leadership roles. God inspired ministries that include Kingdom Academy Preschool & Childcare, LLC, with a dynamic Ten Commandment and Fruit of the Spirit Summer Camp, God's Gift Food & Clothing Bank Resource Center INC, The Holy Ghost Party, Kingdom Academy OJT Program and The Vision Room.

She loves children and young adults with the gift to nurture, it all began at home with her siblings. Elder Grace was a Resource Parent for the State of New Jersey for many years. Praise and Worship is a passion of hers and to teach the children songs of deliverance and to pray. She is a seed planter.

Her memberships are with Atlantic Christian International Schools, NJCCIS, SBA, Rutgers Southern Regional, New Jersey Grow and Vision Room.

Elder Grace Crump Holley is a widow, she has one daughter, two sons and two grandchildren. She stands on the scripture Philippians 4:13 "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

CHIEF CONCENTRATOR Apostle Delorise Dixon, PhD

Dr. Delorise L. Dixon is the second oldest daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Clifford Evans Trapp of Atlantic City, NJ. As a child, Hanna Mose invited her to Community Baptist Church on New Jersey Avenue in Atlantic City, NJ under Rev. Morris where at 9 years old she was baptized, and became active in Sunday School.

She joined a multicultural Bible Club at Westminster Presbyterian Church. There she began singing solo's and scripture memorization. She joined New Hope Baptist Church under pastors Rev. Maxwell, Rev. Lipcome and finally her father where she remained for 23 years.

She joined Trinity Tabernacle COGIC under Elder Calvin Birts, 13 years, Holy Temple COGIC under Elder Clinton Love where she became a Licensed Missionary Evangelist consistently doing tract, hospital, open air street meetings, and nursing home ministry.

She is a High School graduate. She took courses at Atlantic Community College (Music and Black & White Relationships) Stockton University (Real Estate Classes) and graduated from Garden State Bible School, she also attended Eagles Nest School of The Prophets in Philadelphia, PA and completed courses with Moody Bible Institute under Elder Charles Giddins of Mt. Zion COGIC. Dr. Dixon graduated from Jameson School of Ministry. She holds a BA, MA, and honorary D.D. from the International Christian College and a PhD from Western University.

In 2002, Dr. Dixon was consecrated as a Bishop. In 2007 she was consecrated as apostle and then Chief Apostle in 2013. She is a member of the Joint College of Bishops founded by Bishop J. Delano Ellis. She's also received honored recognition by New Jersey Governor Jon Corzine, and Mayor Judy Ward of City of Pleasantville, NJ.

She has been married to Elder Paul M. Dixon, over 45 years. She has one son, one grandson, one granddaughter and one great-granddaughter.

She has been singing since she was 9 years old and played piano for: "The Famous Trapp Sisters of Atlantic City, NJ Jersey". She is an original member of The New John Howard Caravan. She has been pastoring the Church of Faith and Deliverance for over 25 years where she holds the Daughters of Destiny Conference Annually. She formed the O/R Operation Restoration Recovery Ministry, Sons of Thunder Men's Group, Strait Up Street Ministry and the Ezekiel Connection Youth Program.

In 2016, she received 4 Eagles Awards Trophy's by Dr. Maria Vaughn. She released two singles: "911", "Daughter of destiny" and an album "It's time! Let the praise begin" (Live at New Hope Baptist Church) She has hosted radio broadcasts "In His Will Broadcast" and "Daughters of Destiny Radio Broadcast". Dr. Dixon is the author of four books; Surrogate mother, Women of the cloth, Motts. Cookbook of her mother's recipes, and "The New World Order."

Most of all she loves the Lord. Her motto... "It's been a long and rugged journey, but I'm going to make it because I have Jesus with me."
