

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Bishop Kenneth L. Feaster

August 28, 1937 – March 5, 2021

He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

Psalms 40:2

Our Father For A Purpose

Dad, you were chosen to be our father for a purpose.

A man of such humility, but strong in your belief in Christ.

A teacher, a leader to a lot of great people.

But most of all you instructed your children in the ways of the Lord, that was your sole purpose for being our Father.

God gave us a Father and you fulfilled your purpose.

Thank you Dad!!!

We are going on with your Mantle of glory.

Pastoral History

On August 9, 1954, Elder Kenneth L. Feaster was baptized at the Morning Star Holiness Church, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, under the leadership of Mother Minnie Hopkins. Very soon afterward, he received the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

In 1956, Elder Feaster attended church tent meetings regularly located at Lexington and Maryland Avenue until God blessed the saints to have a church built at the same location.

During the year 1959, Elder Feaster was spirituality inspired under the leadership of Pastor Laura Drake to go into the ministry. Within the same year, Elder Feaster was anointed into God's anointing, Elder Feaster first started his teaching and preaching ministry in Detroit, Michigan.

Upon returning back to New Jersey, Elder Feaster became the "president of the young people," and was the chosen teacher to teach at the Morning Star Holiness Church.

As president of the young people, a great spiritual fellowship had started among many churches. One of Elder Feaster's greatest highlights was when he sponsored a one month revival where he had two weeks of prayer and two weeks of preaching. Many young people were saved as a result of his one month revival.

Also at the Morning Star Holiness Church, Elder Feaster had established a "minister and missionary" class. From this spiritual establishment several saints were anointed by God to become pastors and evangelist. As a result of God's blessing some are now pastoring their own church.

In 1968, Elder Feaster began to pastor at the Mount Carmel Holy Church of the Lord Jesus, located at 11th and Hunterdon Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He gladly took on this spiritual responsibility because of his spiritual relationship with Evangelist Thomas Payne who had to move to Greenland due to employment.

In 1976, Elder Feaster was appointed to the office of Assistant Pastor, to spiritually assist Bishop William E. Payne, Sr.

Bishop Feaster later went on to become Pastor and Bishop of Mt. Carmel Holy Church located at 648 Erie Street, Camden NJ.

Bishop Kenneth L. Feaster

Kenneth L. Feaster, 83, presiding Bishop and Sr. Pastor of the Mt. Carmel Holy Church of The Lord Jesus, Inc. in Camden, New Jersey. Transitioned peacefully to glory Friday, March 5, 2021 at home in Egg Harbor City, New Jersey with his family by his side. He will be forever known as a loving husband, father, grandfather, friend, confidant, bible believing, God fearing man of God.

Kenneth was born to the late Alice B. Drake and Frank Feaster on August 28, 1937 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Kenneth was educated in the Philadelphia school system and graduated from Overbrook High School. While in high school, Bishop was active in cross country track and nicknamed "The Champ" by his teammates. He participated and won many track meets including the famous, Penn Relays. After graduation he went on to attend West Virginia State College.

On August 15, 1965, Bishop Kenneth L. Feaster was united in holy matrimony to the late First Lady Annette Donaldson, daughter of the late Deacon James and Edith Donaldson of Atlantic City, New Jersey. They were married at the Shiloh Baptist Church located on Ohio and Arctic Ave., which is now the New Shiloh Baptist Church on 701 Atlantic Ave.

From this union Bishop Kenneth and First Lady Feaster were given from God three daughters: Kimberly, Tracy and Wendy. They were also blessed with three grandchildren: Kelli, Whitney and Kenneth (Kc). Two great-grand Kori and Kelsi and two Sons-in-law: Wallace Amado Jr. Billy Tillar.

In 1964 Bishop began working for Whitmyer Bros. Inc. in Folsom, NJ, which later became Fletcher Creamer Bros for 38 years, in which he retired in 2002. He also was a shop steward for the Heavy Laborers Union Local 172, where he was an active member for 40 years.

Bishop became Pastor of the Mt. Carmel Holy Church of Philadelphia, PA in 1968 and later became Pastor of the Mt. Carmel Holy Church in Camden, NJ until his present death.

Bishop's wife of 53 years, First Lady Annette Feaster preceded him to glory in 2019. He leaves to cherish his memory three daughters: Kimberly Amado (Wallace) of Egg Harbor City NJ, Tracy Tillar (Billy) of Egg Harbor City, NJ and Wendy Feaster of Egg Harbor City, NJ Grandchildren: Kelli, Whitney, KC, Richard and Trinitee, Two great-grand: Kori and Kels, 2 sisters-in-law: Rosalind A. Clayton of Jacksonville, FL and Vandora Scott, Stratford, NJ, Brother-in-law Anthony Donaldson (Yvonne) Atlantic City, NJ, Cousins Sheila Collins and Celeste Dodd, Goddaughter Sharene Jerkins and special daughters Denisa Gadson and Latonya Smith and special son Rickey Gadson.
