PASTOR GWENDOLYN CORBITT CONEDY:

I JUST WANT TO THANK YOU,

FOR THE KINDNESS THAT YOU'VE SHOWN ME SINCE OUR VERY FIRST MEETING.

FOR BEING THERE TO SUPPORT ME EVERYTIME I NEEDED YOU.

FOR THE NEVER, ENDING PHONE CALLS, UNTIL I STOPPED CRYING.

FOR THE CONSTANT PRAYERS, EVEN WHEN I FELT LIKE GOD WASN'T HEARING ME.

FOR KEEPING ME ON THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW PATH, EVEN WHEN I WANTED TO WALK AWAY.

FOR BELIEVING AND SEEING THE MINISTRY IN ME, EVEN WHEN I COULDN'T SEE IT IN MY SELF.

FOR KEEPING MY SECRETS, AND ONLY SPEAKING TO GOD ABOUT THEM.

FOR PROTECTING ME, WHEN I REALLY NEEDED PROTECTING.

FOR LOVING ME, EVEN WHEN MY PAIN WAS SO GREAT THAT I COULDN'T LOVE MYSELF.

FOR BEING THE TYPE OF CHRISTIAN, WHO HAD NO PROBLEM SHARING HER OWN LIFE EXPERIENCES TO HELP ME THROUGH MINE.

I AM HONORED TO CALL YOU FRIEND, CONFIDANT, PRAYER PARTNER, INTERCESSOR, WOMEN'S LEADER, EXAMPLE SETTER, SISTER, AND NOW PASTOR.

I LOVE YOU AND GOD BLESS,

TRACEY MILES

A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you,
That ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples,
If ye have love one to another. *John 13:34-35

Reverend Gwendolyn Corbitt Conedy

Gwendolyn Corbitt Conedy is the daughter of the late Deacon Ralph and Deaconess Alethia Corbitt. She was born and raised in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Gwen is the proud mother of one son, George Corvelle Conedy and mother-in-law of Jacquelyn. Her siblings include the late Ralph Corbitt, Jr., the late Staff Sgt. William Corbitt, James Corbitt, Sr., and Marionette Corbitt Todd. She also mothers a number of other children too many to name. At a young age, she began her membership and ministry at the Community Baptist Church in Atlantic City, New Jersey, as Church Musician, Choir Director, and Sunday School Teacher, all under the leadership of the late Reverend Arthur Lee Morris. Gwen, as she is affectionately called, was always encouraged and inspired by both of her parents to work for The Lord.

Shortly after graduating from Pleasantville High School in 1963, God led Gwen to California where she served faithfully in several ministries including radio broadcast, "HEALING HURTING WOMEN", touching many women across the nation. Gwen ministered in various women's homes and served with the Los Angeles prison ministry and Los Angeles Rescue Mission. While in California, the "Weaker Vessel Women's Ministry International Inc.," of which she is Executive Director, was borne in her home, transforming lives and empowering women from bondage, brokenness, and different spiritual crises to a rich, fulfilled, foundation of life.

Gwen attended the Bible College of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and later received her ministerial license in 1999 under the leadership of Pastor Jesse Lee III. She served as Pastor of Evangelism, Pastor of the New Members Class, Minister of Music, and Secretary of the Church Council Board.

After graduating from the Los Angeles Bethany Bible College in 2001 she received a Certificate of Systemic Biblical Studies in Ministry. Furthering her studies she was ordained as an Elder at the International Anointed Ministry of Jesus Christ Inc. in the city of Inglewood, California, under the leadership and tutelage of Bishop John F. Morris where she served as Associate Minister Evangelism Leader and Adult Sunday School Teacher.

After serving 40 years and residing in Los Angeles, Reverend Gwen returned home to New Jersey and continued her work for the Kingdom. Reverend Gwen became Pastor of the Women's Ministry at Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Pleasantville, New Jersey, under the tutelage of former Pastor, Dr. Winfred J. Sanders.

After Pastor Sanders, Mt. Zion's new pastor, Reverend Willie Dwayne Francois, III, appointed Reverend Gwen as Coordinator of New Members Class, the Prayer Team and Discipleship Training. Rev. Gwen continues to make a difference in the lives of women struggling in spiritual bondage, addiction, and brokenness through the "Weaker Vessel Women's Ministry," a 501c3 nonprofit organization, spiritual support group in networking with Mt. Zion's WINNERS WOMEN MINISTRY.

Weaker Vessel Women Ministry International is committed to transforming lives, one woman at a time, in the community as they pursue the desire and plan to establish a Christian home for women. "WHERE THERE IS LIFE THERE IS HOPE"

And now God has called Reverend Gwendolyn Conedy to a Higher Calling in the Kingdom as Pastor of The New York Avenue Church of God, in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

"Your gift will make room for you and present you among Great Men"
"Greater works shall you do in the Kingdom"

- Her favorite song: "ONLY WHAT YOU DO FOR CHRIST WILL LAST"
- Two of her many favorite scriptures: 1 Corinthians 15:10 "BUT BY THE GRACE OF GOD I AM WHAT I AM" and 2 Corinthians 12:9. "MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT FOR YOU"... "MY STRENGTH IS MADE PERFECT IN YOUR WEAKNESS"

Reception Following The Service

Bishop John F. Morris

Bishop John F. Morris, at the age of 18, was ordained by our founder Bishop W.T. Phillips in the Apostolic Overcoming Holy Church, and was sent to Pastor in Bessemer, AL. After four years of growth and development, he was then sent to Huntington W.VA to help Pastor Katherine Jackson. He later moved to Los Angeles, California where he began to evangelize for 10 years under the Pastorate of the one and only Bishop R.W. McMurray, all over America in the P.A.W. organization. Thousands of souls were lead to the Lord through his Anointed Ministry.

In 1982, he accepted the Pastorate of the Bethel Apostolic Church in Chicago, IL. After 18 years of dedicated service, he was lead to start a new church in Columbus, OH. in 1998 It grew to 50 members in less than a year. The name of the church was Deliverance Temple A.O.H. Church. In 1999 he accepted the call to Los Angeles, CA. to Pastor The St. Peter AOH church it grew to over 175 members. In July of 2000 he received an Honorary Doctorate Degree from the Pentecostal Bible College in Tuskegee, AL. 2001.

But in November 2001, God gave him a vision to begin another new work called the International Anointed Ministries of Jesus Christ with 6 members in his home God began to bless the work and we had to find a larger place and we moved to 1708 Centinela Bld. in Inglewood Ca., and in 2004, Bishop Morris was lead of the Lord to "Gather the Fragments" which he reached out to a few local churches of Different Faiths and gave birth to the IAM. Non- denominational Fellowship of Churches Worldwide, now with over 200 Pastors and affiliate churches in 14 States Of America and 7 countries overseas, we see tremendous growth and have confidence that this vision will be fulfilled.

We are on the move to bring the body of Christ together in Love. For God is Love! Join us today and let's show the world we are Christians by our UNITY in Love.

Reverend Willie Dwayne Francois, III

Willie Dwayne Francois III is a 2009 Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Morehouse College with a Bachelor of Arts in History and Religion, named the ranking scholar in both departments. Francois is a member of various honor societies and holds two fellowships from the Fund for Theological Education. While at Morehouse, he served as the president of the Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel Assistants Program and was named the 2009 Martin Luther King Jr. Scholar. Francois received a Master of Divinity from Harvard University's Divinity School, where he was awarded the Hopkins Shareholders Award—the school's highest academic recognition—and served as class commencement speaker.

Called and committed to empower God's people through transformative preaching and teaching, Francois serves as the Senior Pastor of Mount Zion Baptist Church of Pleasantville, NJ. From 2013 to 2015, Francois served as the Associate Pastor of First Corinthian Baptist Church (FCBC) in Harlem, New York, where Pastor Michael A. Walrond, Jr. is the pastor. Prior to joining the FCBC team, he served as the Minister of Christian Education and Discipleship at Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church of Houston, Texas, under his pastor, Rev. Dr. Marcus D. Cosby. Willie also fulfilled several highly engaging and structured ministerial internships at Wheeler Avenue, FCBC and Morning Star Baptist church (of Mattapan, Massachusetts, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. John M. Borders III). Francois was licensed and ordained at the First Union Baptist Church of Galveston, Texas.

Francois lives into the intersection of the life of the spirit and the life of the mind. In addition to publishing various articles and sermons, Francois served as a member of the Young Preachers' Leadership Team of the Academy of Preachers, the director of the Young Ministers' Corner of the African American Lectionary, a research assistant for Dr. Jonathan L. Walton, a Civil Rights Scholar for the imaging of the King Paper collection through the Martin Luther King Center (in Atlanta). Likewise, he holds an adjunct position in the African American Studies program at the University of Houston.

Francois is a founding fellow of Emerging Millennials Leadership Alliance, which is a movement committed to dismantling the racialized prison industrial complex in America. Through the Bill Lucy Fellowship, Francois represented the Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference in a global conversation on mass incarceration at the Transatlantic Roundtable on Religion and Race at the University of London-Birkbeck in London, England. Francois serves as co-chair of the Theological Working Group of the Black Church Center for Justice and Equality. For 2014-2015, Francois was named a Beatitudes Society Fellow, focusing on congregational responses to Mass Incarceration and empowering returning citizens. Francois' pastoral activism is organized around racial and economic justice and criminal justice reform.

Francois attributes his love of life and dedication to doing the so-called impossible to his close-knit family. He is a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated.
