Memories of You

*It's been the hardest thing to lose you
You meant so much to us
But you are in our hearts
And that's where you'll always be
We know that Heaven called you
But we wish you could have stayed
At least the memories we have of you
They will never fade
We did not want to lose you
But you did not go alone
Because a part of us went with you
When Heaven called you home
So just remember one thing
We are not apart
You're with us in our memories
And in our broken hearts*

We Thought of You Today

*We thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought of you yesterday,
And will tomorrow too.
We think of you in silence,
And make no outward show.
For what it meant to lose you,
Only those who love you know.
Remembering you is easy,
We do it every day.
It's the heartache of losing you,
That will never go away.*

Jeremiah Elijah Saint Surin

Jeremiah Elijah Saint Surin was born on February 12, 2005, to Lisa and Amos Saint Surin, two days before his due date, after a shockingly quick delivery. Jeremiah couldn't wait to get out in the world and live!

He spent most of his life in Mays Landing, NJ. At a very young age, Jeremiah began to show his passion for cars and sports. His love for sports led him to the Hamilton Knights organization, where he participated in youth football and track. Jeremiah earned numerous medals for track, including All American at the Junior Olympics.

When he entered high school, he continued to thrive in athletics. He was a track star and a leader. He earned his high school diploma from Oakcrest High School in 2023.

Jeremiah was known for his angelic smile, infectious laugh, and fun, goofy personality. Dubbed JJ and Honey Bunny by his family, Jeremiah was known as Jerry to others who loved him. Jerry was a hard worker and his personality made it easy for him to connect with both patrons and coworkers. At home, JJ was a frugal young man who made sure all doors were secured even if it meant someone would be unintentionally locked out.

Jeremiah was enthusiastic about cars. He could state the make, model, and other intricate details about a vehicle. It's safe to say he was a self-taught expert. When he wanted to accomplish a task, he made it happen. He wanted to purchase a car with a manual transmission, so he taught himself how to drive a stick shift. He continuously worked to perfect his aged Ford Mustang that he loved very much.

Jeremiah was strong-willed. He had plans to join the military and eventually become a State Trooper. He created friendships and bonds everywhere he went. His life ended entirely too soon. His smile, laugh, and legacy will live on in our hearts.

Jeremiah was predeceased by his grandmother, Rachel Ashley. He will be remembered by his mother, Lisa Saint Surin and father, Amos Saint Surin; sisters, Amaya Ashley and Aja Saint Surin; brother, Joelle Saint Surin; nephew, August Miller; grandfather, James Ashley; aunt and uncles, Nicole (Antonio) Golden, James E. Ashley; cousins, Lexiss (Jamal) Foster and Isaiah Golden; and many more loving aunts, uncles, cousins, friends turned family, mentors, and extended relatives.
